Being a single parent is a rollercoaster ride of emotions. There are moments of pure joy and laughter, and moments of sheer terror and frustration. But through it all, single parents find a way to make it work.

In Mayhem, Mirth, and Mastery, a group of single parents share their stories of the challenges they've faced, the triumphs they've celebrated, and the hilarious moments that have kept them sane.

From the parent who accidentally sent their child to school with a note that said "Please don't feed my child candy" to the parent who had to explain to their child why they couldn't have a pet dinosaur, these stories will make you laugh, cry, and everything in between.

But more than just a collection of funny stories, Mayhem, Mirth, and Mastery is a testament to the strength and resilience of single parents. It's a reminder that you're not alone in this journey, and that there is always hope, even on the toughest days.
